Public Education Policy Seminar and Practicum

Contacts

- Duke Law Liaison: Anne Gordon, Clinical Professor of Law / Director of Externships
agordon@law.duke.edu
- Center for Public Research and Leadership:
cprl@law.columbia.edu

Eligibility

Only 2L and 3L students can participate, but can apply during their 1L year. Law School requires a prerequisite class such as Administrative Law, State and Local Law, Education Law, or other course deemed to be sufficiently related to the student's intended area of focus with CPRL (see our course page here).

Tuition and Fees

Students do not pay extra tuition to participate in the program, students continue to pay tuition to your home institution. Duke Law students are required to pay Columbia the same facilities, student activities, and health services fees that Columbia students pay, which is approximately $1,400 in total (fee amounts subject to change; see below for 2024-25 semesterly fee breakdown as an example). To account for this, non-Columbia universities and graduate programs with which CPRL partners typically waive their comparable fees for the semester in which their students are in residence at Columbia. If Duke Law will not waive these fees and you are having trouble covering the cost, please contact us at opscprl@columbia.edu. Duke Law students can apply for the CPRL Scholar Award and/or Housing Support via the application by the application deadline.
